

Goldcrest Village – On campus at NUI Galway

A number of bedrooms have been reserved for visiting delegates on the NUI Galway campus in the recently opened Goldcrest Village. The village is a stylish, convenient and affordable option for conference delegates. Goldcrest Village consists of 76 apartments, pleasantly grouped around a beautifully landscaped courtyard. Each apartment is comprised of either four, five or six en-suite bedrooms and a fully-equipped kitchen/living area.

The residence offers complimentary Wi-Fi and a complimentary shuttle bus service to/from Galway city centre. Other facilities include a 24-hour reception, a self-service launderette and bicycle storage. The Village is approximately 10 minutes walk to the conference venue.

The vibrant and charming city centre of Galway is a 10-minute drive from the residence. Situated along the famous Wild Atlantic Way driving route, the stunning Galway Bay and Connemara are also nearby.
